Virginia Lee County Court to wit

To the honorable Judge of the said court in chancery sitting, your orator, John M. Sneyth, humbly complaining represents to your honor, that on or about the 21st day of July 1870 one M. C. Parsons sold to one James O. Crabtree, a tract of about acres of Land situate in Lee County, for the sum of $ at the sale thereof he took said Crabtree two bonds for unpaid parts of the purchase money, by one of which Crabtree bound himself by the 1st day of March 1871 to pay said Parsons $200, this bond is here filed marked (1) and made a part of this bill, the other for $ is payable the day of 1873. Mouth were given for the purchase price or a part thereof that said Crabtree agreed to pay Parsons for said Land. Afterwards for a valuable consideration, said Parsons sold both of said Bonds to your orator and delivered them to him, he made no written assignment, but passed them to your orator by delivery, whereby your orator became the owner in equity and entitled to all the securities for their payment that Parsons had and to all the remedies in chancery to enforce collect them that said Parsons had, your orator charges that Parsons has a vendors lien on the said trust of Land for the whole of the unpaid purchase money, he has not conveyed the title to said Land to Crutcher. But is able & willing to do so, when Crutcher completes the purchase by paying the purchase money, your orator further charges that said Crutcher, has wholly failed to pay the said $200. Bond herein referred to & filed, your orator charges that a lien exists on said Land in your orator's favor for said $200, he is remediless at Law & reliefable alone in chancery, he therefore prays your honor to grant him a decree to sell so much of said Land as will pay said debt & interest & costs, and for such other & further relief as his case merits, he makes James O. Crutcher & M. C. Parsons defendants to this Bill & prays that the answer thereto be made on oath & that Parsons state in his answer whether or not said note is the property of your orator, he prays for a summons to be sent out against the defendants to compel them to answer as in and to which he will ever pray &c
